

Show Rocket Prize 2010
Finalist

Kidscreen Awards 2011
Best Animated Series

Gimini Awards 2011
Best Original Music

LEO Awards 2011
Best Screenwriting

LEO Awards 2011
Best Animated Series

LEAGUE OF SUPER EVIL

LEAGUE OF SUPER EVIL

Synopsis

Armed with a whole new approach to badness, The League of Super Evil (a.k.a. L.O.S.E.) follows four bumbling Super Villains who have set their sights on nothing less than total neighborhood domination! Between using a Shiruken anime robot to win a playground slam dunk competition, inventing a super-computer to protect Voltar's sweet new evil BMX bike, or hosting a neighborhood barbecue and evilly not inviting ANY of the neighbors, L.O.S.E. struggles ever-onward to its goal of total mindless fun! Isn't it time the villains got their comeuppance?

LEAGUE OF SUPER EVIL

The Great Voltar is a red, stylized character with a large, pointed head and glowing yellow eyes. He is wearing a white mask and a red suit. He is standing in a room with green walls, a patterned rug, and a framed picture of a superhero. A blue semi-transparent box is overlaid on the right side of the image, containing text. In the top left corner, there is a logo that says "LEAGUE OF SUPER EVIL" in red and white.

LEAGUE OF SUPER EVIL

The Great Voltar

L.O.S.E.'s diminutive leader. Though he thinks of himself as a big-time villain, his "stupendous" plans are actually miniscule and child-like - and give new meaning to the term 'lowered expectations'. Like the time the League threw a neighborhood barbecue, but didn't invite ANY of the neighbors! Mu ha ha ha ha ha! Definitely not the sharpest tool in the shed, but what he lacks in smarts he makes up for in sheer evil enthusiasm.

A cartoon illustration of Doktor Frogg, a green-skinned character with spiky blue hair and large yellow glasses. He is wearing a blue suit and a red tie, and is holding a book titled "LEAGUE OF SUPER EVIL" in his right hand. He has a wide, toothy grin. The room around him is cluttered with cardboard boxes, some labeled "UP↑" and "Evil BOX", and a small framed picture of a red superhero on the wall. The background shows a window with yellow light and a blue door.

LEAGUE OF SUPER EVIL

Doktor Frogg

A genius inventor and the League's resident mad scientist, Doktor Frogg is probably the only member of L.O.S.E. who would qualify as actually evil. However the Doktor's genius is severely diminished by his pathological bad luck. Without it, he probably could have joined a good villain team. His dearest wish is to elevate L.O.S.E. to the next level of villainy. Catastrophe (and Voltar) inevitably stands in his way.

A cartoon illustration of Red Menace, a character from the League of Super Evil. He has a large, muscular build, a friendly expression, and is wearing a green turtleneck and a green double-breasted jacket with yellow buttons. He has a red tuft of hair and is wearing black goggles. The background is a dimly lit room with a desk, a chair, and a potted plant.

LEAGUE OF SUPER EVIL

Red Menace

Bringing the muscle is fresh-faced farm-boy Reginald “Red” Menace. Red has super strength, but prefers to channel his energy into activities like gardening, baking and playing the recorder. He also loves bouncy castles, cute animals and things that are fair. He’s always positive and eager to see the bright side of everything. Who knew being evil could be such a neat-o experience!?

LEAGUE OF SUPER EVIL

Doomageddon

A pan-dimensional creature who gives new meaning to the words "bad dog". This otherworldly tormentor comes and goes as he pleases, answers to no one and finds great fun in hanging around and tormenting those he clearly considers are beneath him (particularly Doktor Frogg). L.O.S.E. just figures he's disobedient.

LEAGUE OF SUPER EVIL

Episode 5B - Swimming with Sharks

LOSE gets a new pool, but when it's taken over by neighbor kids, Voltar schemes to steal a shark to scare them away. They grab a military-trained dolphin by mistake - and now LOSE is the prey.

Episode 10B – The Split

Voltar quits the team and Frogg is now in charge. Without Voltar "holding him back" he concocts an evil scheme that may actually work. But thrust into the spotlight, Frogg cracks under the pressure.

BRAND INFORMATION

THEIR FEEDBACK ABOUT THE SHOW

UK

Steven Andrews : Head of CBBC Drama

"The show embodies CBBC's tone by being funny, energetic, unpredictable, upbeat and fun. All this makes League of Super Evil a fresh, fun take on the superhero genre in a series which is perfect for the CBBC audience"

CANADA

Jocelyn Hamilton : Vice President, Programming & Production

"League of Super Evil is smart, quality humour. We believe kids and adults crave humour that respects their intelligence and yet puts fun on overdrive. We at YTV are huge fans of Nerd Corps and they have managed to produce a comedy in CG and they nailed it for our audience. ..."

NORTH EUROPE

Victor Colman: Programming & Acquisitions Manager Nickelodeon North Europe

"League is a show I tracked since early development, I think it's actually one of the first scripts I read in my job at Nickelodeon Benelux. Now - 3 years later it's on our air. While we've all seen a zillion shows about superheroes, this show put a funny spin on what the 'evil' side could be like. ..."

POLAND

Jolanta Adamowicz : Channel Manager

"We have decided to acquire LOSE as we think this is perfect mix of action and unique sense of humour. Also high quality production.."

BROADCASTERS

EUROPE

FRANCE

FRANCE

FRANCE

UK

GERMANY

ITALY

SPAIN

SCANDINAVIA, SPAIN
& BENELUX

SWITZERLAND

FINLAND

EASTERN EUROPE & MIDDLE EAST

RUSSIA

POLAND

UKRAINE

SERBIA, MONTENEGRO
& BOSNIA

GEORGIA

BULGARIA

MOROCCO

TURKEY

IRAN

UAE

AZERBAIDJAN

BROADCASTERS

ASIA & AUSTRALIA

NORTH AMERICA

LATIN AMERICA

